NOT A POOL SHARK? THAT'S OK!

8 Ball Express is an amateur league. While the level of competition is fairly high, there is plenty of room for players who want to improve their game and have a good time doing it.

Our handicapping system creates a fair environment for every player and allows for all skill levels to compete with each other. The league also encourages defensive play, which allows less offensively skilled players to compete successfully with players of greater offensive skill.

PRIZES & AWARDS OFFERED

Upon winning the 8-Ball Express League Championship tournament, the lucky pool team receives an 8-Ball Express team trophy, individual trophies for each league player on the team, and a vacation to a location of your choice (with stipulations) or $10,000 cash, and $2,000.00 for 2nd place.

There are currently 3 yearly 8-Ball End of Session Championships and 2 yearly 9-Ball End of Session Championship awarding over $60,000 in prizes.

HOW DO I GET A HANDICAP?

The 8-Ball Express handicapping system looks at each individual billiard game played and gives you a score based on the amount of trips you make to the table to shoot (innings), defensive shots (shots where you didn't attempt to make any balls) and the pool balls that are left on the table.

You are not given a handicapped league score on whether you win or lose, but rather on how well you played your 8-Ball Express league match.

The best 50% of your league scores (up to 10) are then added together and you are given an average handicap based on that information.

FEES & COSTS

The fee to become a member and join 8-Ball Express is $10.00 for each session that you play (3 sessions are offered a year). This membership fee covers you for as many teams as you would like to join during any given session, regardless of 8-Ball or 9-Ball format or night of play.

The weekly team fees in the 8 Ball Express league are $40.00. That's just $8.00 per player, each team playing 5 matches per a week.

WHEN & WHERE DO MEMBERS PLAY?

8 Ball Express offers league play Sunday-Friday at various host locations.

Check with your local billiard room or bar location to see if they currently host 8-Ball Express teams. If not, 8 Ball Express is always interested in adding new teams and host locations. Just tell your local League Administrator or Franchise Owner about the bar/pub/billiard room and we be more than happy to help them join!
